

1871-010
Lee Co.

Chancery Causes: Hagar & Pridemore] vs. Thomas Crow

Hagar, Pridemore, Thompson, Bishop

Ch - Debt
T - Property

To the Honorable Henry J. Morgan Judge of the Circuit Court of Lee County - The bill of complaint of Patrick Hagan and Abner L. Pickens, lawyers practicing under the firm style & name of Hagan & Pickens respectfully represents, that their services were employed by one Thomas Crow to, examine a large cause pending in the Circuit Court of Lee County, in which J. T. Bishop admr. is pl. ff, and the Heirs & Creditors of Francis Bishop deceased are defendants; To have in the same suit his the said Crow's interest in the said lands owned his ancestor Thompson laid off and assigned to him - which services they have fully performed, and have now an order assigning him his share of said lands; They allege that the professional services thus rendered by them at the special instance and request of the said Thomas Crow, are reasonably worth twenty five dollars, which have not nor has any part thereof been paid to your complainants, but the same and every part thereof is still due & owing - The said Thomas Crow is a non resident of this Commonwealth, but has estate due him in this County to wit the interest in the lands of one said - The object of this suit therefore is to have the said lands attached, and subject to the payment of the debt aforesaid, Your complainants pray therefore is that upon a final order hearing a decree be rendered, in favor of your complainants for the sum of $25.00, and that said defendant be subjected to the payment thereof by a sale thereof or so much as may be necessary - and for all such other further and general relief as your complainants may legally be entitled thereunto.

Wm. H. Dyer
Attorney at Law

1111P

Hagan & Pickens
vs Bill Chy
Thomas Crow

1871. May Bill filed. Dismissed by Plaintiff

Virginia Lee County to wit-

This day Auburn L. Pridemore, one of the members of the firm of Patrick Hagan and Auburn L. Pridemore lawyers and practicing under the firm style and name of Hagan & Pridemore, personally appeared before me and made oath, that Thomas Crow is justly indebted to the said firm in the sum of $2.50 with legal interest from the 1 day of Jan. 1870 till paid. And that the claim which the said firm asserts in said action is just that the said firm, has present cause of action therefor; that the said Thomas Crow is not a resident of this State and that he the said affiant believes he the said Crow has estate due him in the said County of Lee.

Given under my hand this the 21st day of April 1871
James H. Orr. Clerk.

Hagan & Pickens
res. affectionately
Thomas Crook

Hagan & Priskmore against Thomas Crow et al } In Chy on freight attachment

The plaintiffs in this suit, has instituted an action against the defendant the object of which is to recover against him the said defendant the sum of twenty-five dollars, which suit is now pending in the county court of Lee County and by virtue of a writ in the cause, the interest of the defendant has been attached in a certain tract of land situate lying and being in Lee Co Va about 3 miles S. W. of Jonesville formerly owned by Thompson and sold by his heirs et al to Francis Bishop all except the aforesaid $\frac{1}{4}$, which belongs to the said Crow, said lands are more fully described by the deeds and title papers of the said Francis Bishop now on file in the circuit court of Lee County in a suit in Chy there pending in which S. F.
Bishop admr. is plaintiff and the heirs and creditors of Francis Bishop are defendants

Hayward & Richmond
no { description of land -

Thomas Crow

Recorded in Deed Book
Vol 16 page 227 + 228.

James H. Orr. Clk.

The Commonwealth of Virginia,

TO THE SHERIFF OF LEE COUNTY—GREETING:

WE COMMAND YOU TO SUMMON Thomas Crane

to appear before the Judge of our ~~Circuit~~ ^{County} Court, for Lee County, at the Court-House in the Clerk's Office, at Rules to be holden for said Court, on the first Monday in May next, to answer a bill in Chancery, exhibited in our said Court, against him by Patrick Hagan and Auburn L Pridemore Lawyers practicing under the firm style and name of Hagan & Pridemore

And have then there this writ. Court-House, this 22nd day of April Commonwealth.

Witness, ~~JOHN~~ ^{James} W. ORR, Clerk of our said Court, at the 1871, in the 95th year of the

James W Orr Clerk.

121. d P.

Hagan & Pridemore

vs 3 Opa in Chancery

Thomas Brown

May Rules 1871.

By virtue of the order of attachment heron endorsed I have this day at 5 o'clock P. M. levied the same on the interest of the Deft Thomas Brown in a certain tract of land situate lying and being in Lee County Virginia, about 3 miles S. W. of Jonesville formerly owned by Thompson and sold by his heirs et als to Francis Bishop all except 1/11, which belongs to the said Brown, said lands are more fully described by the deeds and title papers of the said Francis Bishop now on file in the Circuit Court of Lee County in a suit in which there pending in which J. T.
Bishop Solomon is Plff and the heirs and Creditors of Francis Bishop are defendants.

E. Anderson D.C.
for W. L. Hambleton, P. L. C.

For paid by Pridemore

The undersigned having been made in this cause, he is of the advising the process is ordered to attach any estate in this State, belonging to the Defendant, and the same is attached, so to secure and ascertain, that the said Estate may be liable to the future order of court.

Attest
James W. Orr, Clerk.